

Distribution Supervisor Distribution Department

Join a leading, gourmet food manufacturing company, still enjoying success after 165 years. Building on an award-winning reputation, this family-owned enterprise retains its traditional roots while cultivating a dynamic team culture. We are recognized internationally as a high quality producer of sausage, ham and specialty meat products, supplying customers across North America.

We are currently seeking a Distribution Supervisor in our Langley plant. This full-time position is an excellent opportunity for an experienced leader who is seeking a challenging, fast-paced work environment.

Reporting to the Supply Chain manager, you will plan, lead and organize the day-to-day activities that will ensure a strong team of Front Line Leaders and associates. This includes providing leadership, delegating responsibilities, and recognizing the value within the team for development. You will also have the opportunity to prepare and implement improvements within management systems and warehouse configuration projects. A strong track record in leadership, experience in Warehouse Management Systems implementation and project planning, and at least 5 years experience in a high paced warehouse is preferred. Ideally you will bring perishable food industry experience and previous multi-shift responsibility. In return, we offer competitive salary, comprehensive Health & Disability benefits, a contributory Pension Plan, a Safety Rewards program, education reimbursement and much more.

If you not only have the skills we're looking for, but also love to "ham it up" in a supportive and fun work environment, then we'd like to hear from you. Please e-mail your resume and cover letter to: jobs@freybe.com
