

Join a leading, gourmet food manufacturing company, still enjoying success after 165 years. Building on an award-winning reputation, this family-owned enterprise retains its traditional roots while cultivating a dynamic team culture. We are recognized internationally as a high quality producer of sausage, ham and specialty meat products, supplying customers across North America. We are seeking a seasoned leader to make an impact in a newly-created role based at our Langley, BC facility:

Transportation Manager

Reporting to the Supply Chain manager, you will oversee the day-to-day and operational aspects relating to the coordination and planning of logistics. A strong track record in leadership and developing people, delivery and fleet management, and improving operational performance within high paced grocery distribution is essential. Ideally you will bring perishable food industry experience. Post-secondary certification or equivalent experience in Courier Agreement Negotiation and Third Party Fleet Management is essential.

If you not only have the career credentials we're looking for, but also love to "ham it up" in a supportive and fun work environment, then we'd like to hear from you. Please e-mail your resume, cover letter and compensation expectations to: jobs@freybe.com

We appreciate your interest and will be in contact if we are able to offer an interview.
